The Editor,

Bengtol College Newsletter

Message

It gives me immense joy to know that the Publication Cell of this College is going to publish a newsletter for the college named Bengtol College Newsletter for the first time in the history of the College. I am sure; this Newsletter will help to reflect the involvement of the College in various activities of the society and also will bring awareness among the students and the people of the area as well as in various fields.

May God bless in the humble effort of the publication Cell.

Thank You!

Dear Enlightened Readers

Welcome to Bengtol College family. This year, we are bringing out the first ever Newsletter of our College with the title Bengtol College Newsletter. The idea behind the decision of publishing the college newsletters regularly is to inform and engage our stakeholders with the latest development taking place in the college. In this volume of Bengtol College Newsletter, we make a sincere effort to present an intimate, timely and honest picture of the institution; its activities, achievement and challenges.

Despite our sincere effort, this newsletter may contain some unnoticed errors. Advices for improvement will be considered with due acknowledgement.

Financial Literacy Camp and Credit Counseling Programme (FLCCCP)

The Department of political science in collaboration with NABARD and Assam Gramin Vikash Bank, Bengtol Branch organized 'Financial Literacy Camp and Credit Counseling programme' on 5th

November, 2015 with an aim to facilitate an interaction with the public and the financial institutions so as to make the students and public aware about the rules of credit/loan offered by banks and other financial institutions.

Celebration of 16th November

16th November, the Foundation Day of Bodo Sahitya Sabha is celebrated in this year with day long colourful programme. The Flag of the Sabha is hoisted by the Principal of the College, along with the President of Bengtol Primary BSS. This is followed by a condolence for the martyrs of sahitya Sabha. After the condolence, the Principal of the College delivered a brief speech in which he recalls the contributions of the Sahitya Sabha activists for developing the Bodo language and literature. Literary and Cultural Competitions are also held on this occasion.

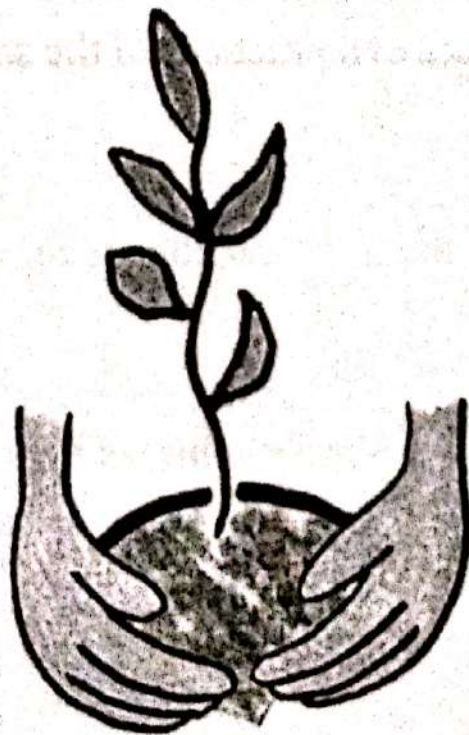

Departmental Seminar (DS)

The department of English organized a departmental seminar for the students of B.A.5th semester English major students on 27th November 2015. All the teachers of the department as well as the students from other semesters also actively participated in the seminar.
